Bigland Cottage, Bigland Hall, Backbarrow, Nr Ulverston, Cumbria, LA12 8PB

Incredible, unique and stunning are just 3 words that don't quite do this amazing property justice, it really is special oozing quality and Georgian charm. If you are looking for complete peace and tranquility with zero light pollution, wonderful setting, stunning views, an immaculately presented, tastefully decorated, spacious, home with sunny private garden, patio and its very own feature well then look no further!

This exclusive development was completed in 2010 and Bigland Cottage is one of only 5 individual homes. Bigland Hall is steeped in history and has strong links to the nearby mediaeval Priory at Cartmel. After the dissolution of the Monasteries, many of the Priory's former tenants retained their homes making a living from the fells and woodlands as well as, in this case, providing hospitality to travelers using the ancient hill tracks.

From the Parking Area the gravelled pathway leads along to the main door which opens into the very spacious and well equipped Kitchen. One of the first things to notice after the generous proportions and quality fittings is the well! An original, ancient well was uncovered during the conversion and has been cleverly exposed and illuminated and fitted with a glass top for a view to the very bottom! A real unique feature. The Kitchen has an extensive range of solid wood wall and base cabinets with black granite gloss work-surfaces and inset 1½ bowl deep stainless steel sink unit. Integrated dishwasher, electric 'Rangemaster' range cooker and large, American style fridge freezer. Laminate 'oak' flooring. The spacious, walk-in Pantry is a luxury with wall and base cabinets and ample storage. The Inner Hall has the stairs leading to the First Floor with under stairs cupboard housing the electric heating system and water pressure system. Separate Cloakroom with WC and wash hand basin. The Lounge is well proportioned with impressive, recessed wood burning stove which adds a super cosy focal point to this lovely room. Double doors lead in to the Sun Room. What a super room - the glazed roof has remote controlled electric German 'Markilux' awning and provides the most charming, country views all around. This spacious addition is currently used for formal dining. Direct access to the paved rear patio.

On the First Floor are two Double Bedrooms and Bathroom. Bedroom 1 is incredibly spacious with wonderful views of the garden, tarn and hills behind. Recessed wardrobe. The En-suite Shower Room is tiled with corner shower, WC and pedestal wash hand basin. Loft hatch. Bedroom 2 is also a good sized Double Bedroom, in fact, it is currently home to a double bed and bunk beds! Window seat and charming view of the private garden. Wonderful, original cast iron fireplace (not in use). The Family Bathroom is tiled with a white suite comprising bath with shower over, WC and wash hand basin. Storage cupboard.

The charming, narrow stairs lead up to Bedroom 3. A super, quirky and generous double Attic Bedroom with an array of beautiful exposed beams. 2 'Velux' roof windows and recessed ceiling spot lights. This room would be a super hideaway for older children with all its nooks and crannies!

Externally, along side the approach path is a charming, Garden which is mainly laid to lawn and bordered by a very mature beech hedge. There is a lower paved Patio just outside the Kitchen so ideal for al-fresco dining and outdoor entertaining. There is a further sunny Patio with direct access from the Sun Room. With the most incredibly peaceful surroundings and stunning views it may be difficult to ever venture back inside! A bonus of these superb gardens is the pretty easy maintenance! There are also beautiful Communal Grounds that surround the properties. There are two designated parking spaces, either side of the path just outside the front Garden but also plenty of extra Parking along the hedge behind for guests. There is also a stone and slated Outhouse ideal for bike storage, garden equipment etc.

Location At the Northern end of the Cartmel Peninsula and in the delightful Lake District National Park, Bigland has an elevated position above the valley of the River Leven which crashes its way over waterfalls, rocks and weir, from the foot of Windermere at Newby Bridge. There are lovely views from the grounds over the estuary, the surrounding woodlands, fields and over the peaceful Bigland Tarn.

The local network of Public Footpaths takes you alongside the tarn and over the wider district, into the National Park and its many amenities. The local market town of Ulverston is only about 10 minutes drive. The popular historic village of Cartmel with its steeplechase meetings and the highly prized L'Enclume restaurant is also 10 minutes away. The A590 offers speedy, convenient access to the M6 Motorway at junction 36 and there are good rail connections at Ulverston, Grange-over-Sands and Windermere, which all offer a wide variety of local shopping and amenities.

To find the Bigland Hall Estate for the first time if travelling from the M6, take the A590 westwards. After the Newby Bridge roundabout, go past the Backbarrow, Brow Edge and Haverthwaite turnings and ignore any 'Brown' tourist signs to Bigland Hall. After the Lakeside & Haverthwaite Railway, take the next left at the crossroads signposted 'Cark'. Follow this road and immediately after the bridge over the river, turn left signposted for Bigland Hall. Follow this lane almost to the top of the hill until the imposing gateway on the right to the Bigland Hall Estate - opposite the sign for 'Otter Tarn', follow the delightful driveway, passing the Tarn and Hall on your left hand side. Bigland Cottage can be found to the rear with parking. Proceed down the pathway through the gap in the hedge to the main entrance.
