Welcome to charming Bumblebee Cottage.

Built in the 1800's this beautifully presented and centrally located two bedroom terraced house is now available. Only around a ten minute walk into Beverley town centre this truly delightful property has been tastefully upgraded throughout by the current owner. With traditional touches and contemporary finishes such as uPVC sash windows to the front, wooden shutter blinds, traditional radiators and engineered wood flooring on the ground floor, the quality can be felt as soon as you step inside.

As you enter the lounge you are greeted with a lovely exposed brick fireplace with a stone hearth, which leads through to the modern fitted kitchen with dining area and French doors to the patio and garden. A useful cloak/WC/utility room completes the ground floor. On the first floor there are two double bedrooms. The second bedroom has a traditional Victorian fireplace, built in wardrobe space and the ensuite/house bathroom. The spacious bathroom features both a shower enclosure as well as a bath. Outside the gravel garden has a patio area positioned at each end, ideal for al fresco dining and entertaining.
