OUTSIDE
 Bluebell Gardens remains conveniently situated in the desirable and attractive conservation area off Woodfield Lane. Electronically operated gates provide access to a most impressive community of five individually styled dwellings, via telephone operated intercom. The subject dwelling benefits from an expansive block paved area with parking provision for multiple vehicles, also with large shed (18ft x 10ft). Mature planting and established boundaries feature, with oak tree, laid to lawn grass frontage, with Photinia 'Red Robin' and Laurel hedging delineating the boundary. Path leads to a utility area to the side of the house, with wood-pile area, further shed and outside tap. The immaculately appointed and well landscaped rear gardens provide a secure and safe environment for children and pets, with planting, shrubbery, herbaceous borders, fencing and gates. A most impressive Robinson greenhouse (16ft x 9ft) provides a focal point to the garden in a cream powder coated aluminium finish, with inside paving, shelving and ample growing space. There are 4 additional vegetable growing beds and compost heap area, with further garden shed also, block paving to patio terrace, wood store, wall mounted light points, extensive lawned and planted borders and additional porcelain patio seating area, external tap and power sockets. A number of notable trees include Chestnut and Acacia and a genuine feature to the garden is a Koi Carp pond with associated filtration system, oversize glass viewing window and lighting which really does need to be seen to be fully appreciated. A polypropylene Chicken coup also exists, being fully fox-proof, with potential to take-on seven hens if desired.

AGENTS NOTE
 The property in its entirety really does need to be seen to be fully appreciated given the individual styling and attention to detail throughout. A Service Charge of £64.00 pcm is levied which contributes to the landscaping of the communal areas and a sinking fund for such services as electric gates and communal lighting, window and gutter cleaning.
