We are delighted to present this exceptional seven-bedroom detached house within a highly sought-after village location. This substantial property offers versatile accommodation throughout a generous footprint, perfectly suited to families seeking space and comfort. A stones throw from the historic castle dating back to Edward 1, this property enjoys proximity to the beautiful North Wales coast and Snowdonia National Park, whilst also offering good access to major travel links, the M62 corridor, airports and national rail network. Rhuddlan also hosts good retail and leisure facilities, with excellent primary and senior educational opportunities available locally. An ideal property for families or busy professionals seeking the perfect blend of historic charm and calming ambience coupled with modern convenience.
