A spacious family house with glorious countryside and coastal views. Set in a solid, grand and elevated position as the name suggests, this attractive detached property is 'ready to move into' and really does offer space in abundance. The accommodation is both contemporary and stylish, with the extensive living quarters being upstairs to make the most of the beautiful panorama. Solid wood flooring and oak panel doors add to the charm. To the lower floor are a further four bedrooms plus a cloakroom and shower room. Externally there are landscaped, terraced gardens with different levels, plenty of level parking and a double garage. Set in this pretty rural village, just minutes from the A55 Expressway and coast. The towns of Abergele and Colwyn Bay are within a short drive and there are numerous country walks to enjoy.
