This charming stone cottage is located within a court yard setting, alongside similar properties on the outskirts of Abergele town. There are many original cottage features such as solid stone walls, deep window sills and vaulted ceilings with rustic beams and the cottage also benefits from having mains gas and a specialised water treatment plant. The property has been updated with quality flooring to the principal rooms, a fitted kitchen and white bathroom suite. Located in a rural setting with nature, country walks and horse riding on the doorstep; yet the property is just a short drive from Abergele town centre with all its amenities including shops, schools and leisure facilities. Access to the A55 Expressway is within one mile, offering a quick commute along the North Wales coast and beyond.
