Peter Large Estate Agents are proud to bring to the market this charming detached property which is believed to be one of the oldest house in the vicinity, dating back to 1910. The property has been carefully and lovingly restored by the current owners who have retained many original features such as decorative coving and stained glass windows. There is a delightful mix of the 'old and new' and the family size accommodation is now both characterful and contemporary. The house has a superb lounge, a beautifully fitted kitchen and three bedrooms, the master having a en suite facility. There are top quality fittings and the property benefits from being mainly double glazed with gas central heating, USB points in the bedrooms and practical vinyl flooring to the ground floor.
