Lymington

Downton is a village in Hampshire, England, located near the south coast. It is approximately 4 miles west of Lymington and 17 miles east of Bournemouth. The Royal Oak is situated on Christchurch Road (A337), a main route through Downton, providing access to Lymington and Christchurch. The property is located next to a car garage, with the surrounding area comprising residential properties and countryside. The nearest public houses include Tides Bar & Grill, located 0.5 miles into Downton, and The Smugglers Inn, approximately 2.4 miles away in Milford-on-Sea.

Property Comprises

The Royal Oak comprises a two-storey public house fronting Christchurch Road with a site measuring approximately 1.554 acres (0.628 ha). The property is of traditional brick construction with a pitched slate roof and wooden-framed sash fenestration. The ground floor comprises a single-bar operation with a snug area and an extended open plan dining room with central fireplace, providing space for approximately 80 covers. A fully fitted trade kitchen supports food service. The first floor includes private accommodation with three bedrooms, a lounge, kitchen, bathroom, and office space. Externally, the property features a rear car park with approximately 30 spaces (plus grassland for a further 30 if required), a courtyard garden terrace, and additional outdoor seating areas.

The public house has an approximate GIA of 437 square metres (4,704 sq. ft). The site could be potential be converted in a residential use (STPP) but prospective purchasers should conduct their own research before registering their interests.
