

86 St. Leonards Road | | Norwich | NR1 4JF

£350,000

Packed with character and style, this stunning three-bedroom, three-storey Edwardian end-terrace is set in the ever-popular Thorpe Hamlet, just moments from Norwich city centre. Immaculately presented throughout, this home seamlessly blends original period features—including sash-style windows, cast iron fireplaces, wooden floors, and a striking exposed brick open fireplace—with impressive contemporary upgrades. The standout feature is the show-stopping 8.12m open-plan kitchen/dining room on the lower ground floor, complete with utility and cloakroom—perfect for entertaining or family life. With a spacious lounge, three well-sized bedrooms, a sleek recently fitted bathroom, and generous front and rear gardens with a large outbuilding, this home offers exceptional value and versatility. All just a short walk from the train station, Riverside bars, cinema, restaurants and the heart of the city—this is a must-see property that ticks every box.
