£650,000

A rare opportunity to acquire a truly stunning Georgian-inspired residence, individually designed by renowned developers Halsbury Homes. This exquisite, recently constructed single-storey detached home combines timeless architecture with luxurious modern living, all set within the highly sought-after and tranquil St. Georges Park.

From the moment you arrive, the property's grand proportions and exceptional kerb appeal set the tone. Positioned on a generous, private plot, it offers extensive off-road parking and an oversized detached double garage—ideal for multi-vehicle households or those seeking additional storage.

Step inside and prepare to be captivated. A wide, elegant entrance hall with tall ceilings measuring at 9'3 and large sash windows floods the home with natural light. The centrepiece is the magnificent 25ft open-plan kitchen/dining/family room, complete with bi-fold doors that lead to the garden terrace. The kitchen features granite worktops, a double oven, induction hob, integrated tall fridge and freezer, bespoke larder cupboard, and a central peninsula island with breakfast bar. A separate utility room enhances the practicality of the space.

The 17ft x 16ft sitting room boasts a dual-aspect outlook and a contemporary wood burner—perfect for cosy evenings. Three generous double bedrooms all include stylish built-in wardrobes. Two enjoy luxurious en-suite shower rooms, while the third is served by a pristine family bathroom. Ample storage is integrated throughout.

Outside, the enclosed rear garden offers a private, sun-soaked haven. The newly laid terrace is ideal for alfresco dining, while the expansive lawn provides space to relax or entertain.

Immaculately presented and finished to an exceptional specification throughout, this unique residence offers single-level living at its very finest.
