Description

Approached at the end of cul de sac the property has the benefit of a drive and integral garage. The front garden is attractive and offers great kerb appeal to this detached family home. It also offers further opportunity for parking on this corner plot.

Entered into a porch area the property opens up to the main reception room. A large windows look out over the rear and front gardens and offer great light into the space. Block parquet flooring has survived the test of time and could be used and enhanced in the overall modernisation plan. To the rear of the property is a square in shape kitchen with another window to the rear and back door to the garden.

Upstairs off a central landing are three good sized bedrooms. One of which has a doorway leading out to the flat roof used as a balcony area. All three bedrooms are serviced by a shower room.

Externally the property benefits from being on corner plot and has a wider than normal garden that is mainly laid to lawn and has border planting. Access is given to the side leading to the front garden and drive.
