Description

Set back off the famous Pilgrims Way sitting above the village of Trottiscliffe the property is partially hidden amongst woodland style garden as you approach. Perched above its main garden within the great plot of approx. one acre this much loved bungalow has been in the family for approaching a quarter of a century. It is now time to sell and will be with no complication of onward chain.

The detached bungalow offers great space throughout and flexibility of usage due to its lateral living design. It may bring its new buyer to open spaces and reconfigure to develop their own layout which I am sure will be exciting to consider the options available. Its current layout consists of four good sized bedrooms, The master with ensuite plus an additional study room that could easily be turned into a dressing room for a touch of luxury. A large kitchen plus utility room link into the current allocated dining room with French doors to the terrace with views over the garden and beyond. This could be opened further to give a better flow and the space a family are looking for. The sitting room and conservatory could also be linked and establish a larger open plan space also.

Externally the property offers its trump card with gardens ranging from woodland spaces at the top of the plot opening out into the orchard and lawn area at the bottom of the plot. Four quality outbuildings with electric connections of various sizes give great flexibility for hobbies, entertainment spaces or further development subject to planning. A connected terrace to the the rear of the bungalow overlooks the garden.

A drive and a double garage offer great parking as well as a single garage and layby at the top front of the plot.
