

Ibbett Mosely

Bough Beech Road, Four Elms, Kent, TN8
6NE

This charming detached former school building has been sensitively extended whilst retaining many period features. It now offers delightful characterful accommodation, sitting in its own established gardens with views to the front over open farmland and being positioned in the heart Four Elms village. With William Morris décor, complemented by beautiful oak woodwork throughout this home offers a blend of character, comfort, and practicality, making it a wonderful place to call home - an inspection is highly recommended.
