7 Overhill Way

Brighton, BN1 8WP

£495,000

Offers in the region of £550,000

A detached three bedroom, family home in need of some updating with a pretty south west facing garden offered for sale with no onward chain.

Overhill Way is to be found in the heart of the sought after Patcham district of Brighton ideal for families due to the close proximity to schools and conveniently located close to shops with easy access to the A23/A27 and Preston Park mainline railway station. Regular bus services run close by providing access into the city centre.

A path leads to the front door which opens into the entrance hall on the ground floor level where a well-equipped kitchen and dining room both with views over the pretty rear garden, two bedrooms and bathroom and separate WC are to be found. Stairs lead down to the garden level having a useful area of storage under the stairs to the third bedroom and living room which has sliding patio doors leading out to the south west facing garden directly onto the patio which runs along one of the mature garden mainly laid to lawn which is flanked by mature trees and shrubs. To the front is a pretty garden and a driveway providing off road parking for several vehicles leading to a single garage.
