29 Yardley Street Brighton, BN1 4NU

Guide price £650,00 - £675,000

An immaculately presented three-bedroom end of terrace house with a west facing rear garden in a popular area of Brighton which has a friendly community feel within a short walk of Brighton mainline station.

29 Yardley Street

Brighton, BN1 4NU

The property is ideally located for commuters, as Brighton Mainline station is a short walk away with links to London and even closer is London Road station with services to Lewes and beyond. Regular bus services run close by providing access into the city itself although it is only a 15-minute walk into the start of the vibrant North Laine area. The Duke of York's Picturehouse is Brighton's much-loved independent cinema, is nearby as is the vibrant open market which is home to independent shops, artist's studios and traders with stalls selling handmade arts and crafts, food and much more. Local pubs and restaurants including the Hare & Hounds, Joker, Open House, Signal Man, Preston Park Tavern and the Roundhill, all close by. The Roundhill is well known for its vegan kitchen serving award-winning plant-based meals. Preston Park is on the doorstep with recreational facilities and large green open spaces.

Through the front door you are greeted by stripped and polished original floorboards with a bedroom to the front and bathroom/WC to the rear complete with freestanding bath and a separate shower. White painted stairs lead down to the open plan kitchen/dining/living room with a log burner in the living area. There is a separate street entrance to this floor from the front which is useful for bringing shopping through. A well fitted kitchen includes a range cooker and integrated dishwasher with a stable door providing access out to the pretty, flint walled, west facing rear garden providing a perfect place to enjoy al fresco dining in the late evening sun. On the first floor are two double bedrooms. The loft space provides the opportunity to create further accommodation if required subject to the necessary planning permissions.

In summary this is a house in turnkey condition benefiting from new windows throughout and a boiler that is only 18 months old which is ready to be passed on to a new owner to enjoy and create their forever home.
