£650,000

Sycamore Farm stands on a wonderful 0.78 acre countryside plot, with planning permission to create a stunning luxury home, together with outbuildings/stables and a large 1574 ft² outbuilding with rural views and surroundings, perfect for those seeking a property with huge potential.

John German

Set in a lovely Staffordshire countryside location with the significant benefit of planning permission to create a very impressive, luxurious and substantial rural home. The planning permission ref P/2022/00451 is valid until April 2025, with more information available from our office or www.esbc.gov.uk.

The house currently offers a charming detached two bedroom home, well placed for the nearby centres of Barton under Needwood with John Taylor's schooling, Burton-on-Trent, Uttoxeter, Lichfield and beyond, together with wonderful countryside walks.

The ground floor begins with an entrance porch which opens into the kitchen, fitted with base and eye level units with space for appliance and a breakfast bar.

There is a well appointed, recently modernised ground floor bathroom with mirrored bathroom cabinet, bath with a shower over and shower screen.

The sitting room and lounge both have log burners creating a cosy feel, laminate flooring, and a conservatory used as a dining room, with garden views.

The landing is generously sized, with fitted wardrobes across two walls providing excellent storage. The master bedroom has a lovely character fire surround and offers a generous double. Bedroom two is also a good size double and has a vaulted ceiling with spotlights.

The plans for a buyer looking to create their dream home shows a property with a versatile layout and open plan living, combined with spacious and cosy reception rooms, and the flexibility of ground and first floor bedrooms, making it property capable for families and multi-generational living.
