Extremely interesting and unique opportunity. A detached bungalow in need of cosmetic updating, set in a plot of mainly woodland extending to approximately 8.37 acres.

Consideration and viewing of this extremely rare and interesting property is highly recommended to appreciate the huge amount of potential offered by the detached bungalow, views over the village and River Churnet, and the opportunity provided by the extensive plot which comprises gardens, ample parking and dense woodland that in total extends to approximately 8.37 acre and in part borders the River Churnet. Situated at the end of a no through lane on the edge of the highly desirable and picturesque village of Oakamoor within easy reach of its amenities and the lovely community including the Cricketers Arms public house, Valley Primary School and cricket club, as well as the numerous through the beautiful surrounding countryside towards Dimmingsdale. The towns of Ashbourne, Uttoxeter, Leak and Cheadle are all within easy commutable distance, as well as the A50/A52 road networks.

A solid timber door and obscure glazed skylight opens to the L shaped hallway having fitted storage and a side facing window providing additional natural light, plus doors leading to the well proportioned accommodation. The spacious triple aspect living and dining area is immersed in natural light and enjoys delightful views over the surrounding countryside and over the village. In the living area is a focal stone chimney breast with a cast log burner set on the hearth. The breakfast kitchen provides scope to personalise, presently having a range of base units with worktops and an inset sink unit set below the wide rear facing window, plus space for a cooker and appliances and plumbing for a washing machine. A timber door opens to the timber and glazed constructed porch, enjoying a pleasant outlook and a door to the outside. The two bedrooms can both easily accommodate a double bed, having wide front facing windows enjoying a pleasant outlook. Completing the accommodation is the fully tiled, wet/shower room which provides ample space to be converted back into a bathroom if you wish.

Outside, the property is set in gardens to the front and rear elevations enjoying a good degree of privacy and views over the surrounding countryside and the village with borders, storage and space for a greenhouse. To the front, a right of access leads to both side elevations of the bungalow, having a carport to one side and additional parking on the opposite side that provides access to both the attached garage which has an up and over door, power and gardeners WC, plus a further detached garage. A timber five bar gate leads to further parking and the woodland forming part of the Churnet Valley and in part bordering the River Churnet. In total, the plot extends to approximately 8.37 acres.
