A truly delightful barn conversion which enjoys a lovely situation, semi-rural yet within walking distance of the many amenities in Penkridge including a railway station, plus easy access to the M6.

There is a reception hall with a tiled floor and stairs rising to the first-floor landing, and off which is a shower room fitted with a waterfall head shower, wash basin with integrated cupboard beneath, WC and lovely contrasting wall and floor tiling. Also off the hall is a semi open plan kitchen, dining and sitting area. The kitchen has an attractive range of traditional units with contrasting work surfaces and twin Belfast style sinks, and an integrated hob and separate oven set in attractive rustic brick work. The tiled floor extends through a wide opening to the dining and sitting area which has feature exposed brick work and a wide opening to the superb garden room which also has a tiled floor and double French style doors opening to the beautiful garden. From the kitchen there is a utility which has a Belfast style sink, fitted cupboards, space and provision for washing machine, outer door and a large walk-in cupboard.

There is a spacious ground floor bedroom with its own en suite wet room having a shower, wash basin and WC, ideal for those seeking ground floor facilities for elderly or disabled relatives.

The charming lounge has a brick inglenook fireplace housing a cast wood burner and there is a very impressive, vaulted ceiling with exposed timbers and mezzanine above.

The first-floor landing leads to three characterful bedrooms. The principal bedroom has a walk-in wardrobe, a cast ornamental fireplace and an opening to the mezzanine area above the lounge. The second bedroom has steps leading to a useful storage area and the third bedroom is currently used as an office. The bathroom is beautifully appointed having a traditional roll top bath with mixer tap and shower, WC and pedestal wash basin.

Outside, the property is situated in a secluded location and approached via double gates leading to a generous sized drive capable of parking approximately three cars and there is a wonderful, extremely interesting garden having a block paved sun terrace, dwarf wall to a slightly raised gravelled terrace area with dwarf hedge and pergola, separate lawned area and further immaculately maintained borders. Penkridge is an extremely popular village or small town with a range of amenities including an excellent railway station. It is also easily accessible to the M6 giving direct access into the national motorway network and M6 toll.
