£350,000

A rare opportunity acquire a traditional semi-detached house which occupies such a lovely and extensive plot, situated in a semi-rural location yet also being within walking distance of Great Haywood and its facilities.

There is a spacious sitting room with a front facing window and off which leads an inner hall which has a large walk-in store. The lounge to the rear of the property is dual aspect and has a beamed ceiling. The generous sized dining kitchen has an extensive range of units, stainless steel sink and drainer, wall mounted gas boiler and a separate entrance lobby.

The first-floor landing leads to three double bedrooms and a modern shower room having shower, wash basin and WC set into an integrated unit with cupboards, vertical radiator and modern splash plates.

The property occupies an established and very spacious plot. There are lawned areas with established borders and beds, plus a side and rear terrace. There is a drive with parking for approximately three cars, leading to two garages. To the other side of the drive, there is an additional garden area which also incorporates a small copse.

The house enjoys an enviable location on the outskirts of the village yet within walking distance of the village centre.

Agents notes: The property is part of a deceased estate, and we are acting with the solicitors regarding the sale of the property. We believe there is mains gas and mains drainage, however, we are not 100% sure and therefore interested parties should make their own enquiries.

Easements and covenants are referred to in the Land Registry document and a copy is available upon request.

Tenure: Freehold (purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves as to the tenure via their legal representative).

Please note: It is quite common for some properties to have a Ring doorbell and internal recording devices.

Property construction: Standard

Parking: Drive & two garages

Electricity supply: TBC

Water supply: TBC
