The lounge is a charming living space with feature fireplaces, wood-effect flooring, and large windows fitted with plantation shutters, allowing for plenty of natural light. The neutral tones and traditional detailing create a cosy yet elegant atmosphere to relax in.

Dining Room

13'0" x 10'0" (3.96m x 3.05m)

Adjacent to the lounge, the dining room is a bright room with neutral carpeting and double French doors opening onto the patio. The space is perfect for family meals or entertaining, featuring high ceilings and plantation shutters that fill the room with natural light.

Kitchen / Breakfast Room

15'10" x 10'0" (4.83m x 3.05m)

The kitchen/breakfast room is fresh and modern, fitted with pale grey cabinetry, integrated appliances including a double oven, and a gas hob with a stainless steel extractor hood. The space benefits from a practical layout with tiled flooring, ample storage, and a door leading out to the garden, making it a light and functional hub of the home.

Located on sought-after Crow Lane in the heart of Rochester's conservation area, this charming late 19th-century Victorian terraced house spans three floors plus a basement cellar. Full of character, it retains original fireplaces and sash windows, all now with modern shutters.

The home offers four double bedrooms (one currently used as a study/lounge), a large family bathroom upstairs, and at ground floor level a WC and separate shower/wet room. Gas central heating is installed throughout.

One of the property's most striking features is its rear garden, which sits against the Grade I-listed Rochester City Wall—a rare and historic backdrop that will appeal to lovers of the city's rich heritage. The secluded northwest-facing sunken garden includes mature apple and fig trees and enjoys sun from late morning into the afternoon. The upper courtyard is a true sun trap all day. A gated, resin-laid private parking area at the rear can also serve - as at present - as an additional garden space. The owners currently have pots, olive trees, camellias and seating and space for a car.

Perfectly positioned, the house is just a minute's stroll from Rochester High Street and The Vines, with the Castle, River Medway, and Rochester Station all within easy reach. Strood's retail park is also nearby.

The property is accessible at street level, with near step-free entry to the hallway and courtyard.

Ideal for families, professionals, or multi-generational living, the house offers generous living space as is, with potential for further extension. A previously approved two-storey rear extension plan (now expired) bodes well for future development.

A rare opportunity to own a unique slice of Rochester's history—viewing recommended.
