PROPERTY SUMMARY

This most impressive detached residence with its delightful Georgian façade, is conveniently located in Green Pond Corner, only half a mile or so from Havant town centre, which enjoys a mainline railway station, a Waitrose store, and numerous eateries and coffee shops. The property, which is uniquely situated on its own 'island', is steeped in a fascinating history dating back to the 1700's, has been beautifully and sympathetically restored during the ownership of the current vendors. The accommodation comprises an entrance hall providing access to the bright and airy lounge with its two feature bay windows, a bespoke fitted kitchen, which in turn, flows through to the dining room, utility area and the extension with a snug/bedroom and w.c. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms with the master bedroom having an eye-catching vaulted ceiling, family bathroom, cloakroom and a large walk-in store room housing the boiler. Outside, the property sits on spacious, well tended and picturesque grounds of around 1/5th acre, which include a wonderful boat house, summer house, store shed, and even a folly! An internal inspection is recommended to fully appreciate the unique quality of this stunning and characterful period home.
