 VICTORIAN END TERRACE HOUSE, WITH OFF ROAD PARKING AND SUPERB WESTERLY VIEWS TO THE REAR *****

Situated in a popular side street, in the heart of South Nutfield village, this end terrace house has stacks of potential.

To the side is the main entrance, which opens to a lobby with the stairs straight ahead. To the front of the house there is a living room, with a cast iron fireplace. centrally there is a dining room with storage under the stairs and a window to the rear. Off the dining room there is a separate kitchen, with a door to the bathroom and cloakroom, as well as access to a lean to. On the first floor there is a double bedroom to the front, another double to the rear which has a door into the third bedroom.

Outside you have off road parking for one car to the front, a side access leads to the lean to, which in turn allows access to the back garden. At the rear there is a 65ft garden, which is west facing and has superb views over fields.

South Nutfield has a wonderfully well stocked village store, as well as a superb farm shop and a local pub. There is a highly regarded school within the village also, and you have the benefit of a train station, that has services to central London via Redhill.
