A much improved three bedroom semidetached Victorian home

On The Ground Floor

The front door opens into an entrance hall, with stairs leading to the first floor and access to the main reception rooms on the ground floor. The family room, located at the front of the home, features a bay window that fills the space with natural light, stripped wood floorboards and a traditional fireplace, creating a cosy atmosphere. Towards the rear, the sitting room offers a log burner set within a fireplace, with built-in cupboards and shelving in the alcoves, stripped wood floorboards. An opening connects the sitting room to the kitchen/dining area, where you'll find a range of eye-level and base units with tiled countertops. The ceramic-tiled flooring extends into the dining room, which offers double doors that open out to the rear garden. The kitchen includes a utility room and pantry space.

On The First Floor

The first-floor landing provides access to the loft space and leads to all the main rooms. The master bedroom, located at the front of the house, benefits from three windows, flooding the room with natural light. Two additional bedrooms offer ample space for family. The bathroom is fitted with a classic white three-piece suite, and a window to the side allows for plenty of ventilation and natural light.

Outside

To the front is a pathway leading to the front door with hard standing to the front and side providing parking for two cars. The southerly facing rear garden has a patio seating area leading to the level lawn with a plethora of shrub's, fruit bearing trees, soft fruits and flowering plant borders.
