Strand on the Green Chiswick W4

An historic opportunity to acquire an exquisite riverside gem on Strand on the Green, brought to market by RiverHomes for the first time in 57 years. A south-facing property with stunning river views, its beautifully proportioned rooms are animated by the changing light reflected from the water. Built in 1690 it retains much of the 17th century atmosphere and detail; original panelling, corner cupboards, stairs, fireplaces, shutters, window seats, floors, historic cellars and even original door hinges.

Fronted by a paved garden on the river and a secluded mature walled garden to the rear. The accommodation totals 2,538 sq. ft. comprises 4 bedrooms, 2 reception rooms, kitchen and flexible studio/workrooms. To the ground floor is the delightful river-facing living room, the kitchen, and cloakroom, with panelled entrance hall. The first floor houses the stunning drawing room with amazing river views, and a double bedroom overlooking the garden with ensuite bathroom.

On the second floor is the lovely river-facing master bedroom, two smaller bedrooms/studies, and a family bathroom. The historic cellars provide a utility room, wine cellar, boiler room, and workroom. The garden further houses a charming two storey annex studio with kitchenette and en suite shower room above a separate garage, and side passage leading out to Thames Road.

Strand on the Green is an idyllic riverside spot well known for its beauty and tranquillity, historic pubs, local sailing, abundant river wildlife, and friendly community. Excellent communications by road and rail (District line, Overground and SW trains), to Heathrow in 20 minutes, or Waterloo in 35 minutes. Good shopping, restaurants etc. in nearby Chiswick High Road. Viewing is highly recommended: This really is a unique, once in a lifetime opportunity.
