An incredibly rare opportunity to acquire a two acre parcel of land, within walking distance of the centre of Beccles and set on the banks of the River Waveney with approximately 110ft of main river moorings.

This peaceful and private plot of land offers a tranquil retreat within easy reach of a wealth of local amenities.

The plot enjoys full vehicular access with ample provision for multiple cars/boats/caravans etc.

The site itself is home to a wonderful variety of trees with everything from oak, willow, hazel and alder represented and as you walk through the plot the trees reveal a couple of large clearings, one of which was formerly used as the site of a forest school with the remains of several outbuildings dotted about, a haven for wildlife and birdlife.

The woodland walk continues to a footbridge which leads onto the riverside section of the plot with stunning views out over the river and beyond over Beccles church.

The river frontage extends to approximately 110ft with space for several boats but it is also the ideal spot to launch kayaks/paddleboards and a fantastic location from which to fish.
