The Location

Fowey is regarded as one of the most attractive waterside communities in the county. Particularly well known as a popular sailing centre, the town has two thriving sailing clubs, a famous annual Regatta and excellent facilities for the keen yachtsman. The immediate area is surrounded by many miles of delightful coast and countryside much of which is in the ownership of the National Trust. Award winning restaurants, small boutique hotels, excellent public houses etc, have helped to establish Fowey as a popular, high quality, destination.

Situated on North Street, the property is 2 minutes walk from the centre of town with it’s vibrant shops, galleries and cafes. In the other direction, 5 minutes away is boat launching facilities and a car park, all within a level walk.

The Property

This much loved home has undergone an extensive and sensitive renovation by the current owners and now provides a beautiful, characterful main home or luxury holiday home.

Dating from circa 1750 and originally 3 cottages, the property is Grade II Listed and boasts a host of original features including exposed beams. The hallway, with lovely paved floor, opens to a spacious sitting room with windows to both front and rear aspects. A feature fireplace is home to a wood burning stove. There is an additional reception room which is currently used as snug/occasional 5th bedroom with en suite shower room and double doors opening to the courtyard. The well appointed, bespoke kitchen/dining room has dual aspect windows, a terracotta tiled floor, lovely high ceiling and door leading to the useful utility area. There is a secluded outside terrace which is a real sun trap and steps lead to the gardens.

On the first floor landing there are generous built in storage cupboards and stairs lead to the second floor. Doors open to bedroom 4 (currently used as a study) and the principal bedroom suite which is a generous sized, light and airy room, with dual aspect windows, pretty window seat and steps leading to a large and stylish ensuite bathroom with freestanding bath, separate shower amd Amtico flooring. .

On the second floor there are two further double bedrooms with large family bathroom.

Outside

Accessed directly from North Street there is an area to the front of the property planted with mature hydrangeas. A pathway to the side of the property leads to the rear, with timber gate providing a secure access to the private courtyard.

Steps lead to a number of beautifully planted terraces The first terrace is decked and offers extensive dining and living space with a pergola and vine providing shade. There is an impressive summerhouse on this level which provides overflow accommodation or a luxury garden room, complete with kitchenette area, separate WC with wash basin. An ideal area for al fresco living.

Clever planting of trees and shrubs create individual areas of colour and the second terrace is used as a sun deck with glass balcony that give uninterrupted views across the river and towards the harbour and Polruan.

The third level is mostly lawn with a small natural woodland and has the most stunning views to the river and countryside beyond.
