The Location

Formerly the ancient capital of the County, Lostwithiel occupies an attractive valley setting and is regarded as one of Cornwall's most attractive small towns. There is a real sense of community here, with shops for most day to day needs, lovely pubs and restaurants, a doctor's surgery, modern dental surgery, and access to the beautiful waters of the Fowey River. The town also has a main line Railway Station with links to Paddington, London. Two local schools provide education for primary school age children. There are many world class gardens to be found in the immediate area and the fascinating Eden Project with its futuristic biomes is just a few miles away. There are good road links to the motorway system via the A38/A30, and there are flights to London from Newquay

The Property

Set in the grounds of the former Grade II Listed railway buildings which were originally designed by Isambard Brunel, is the award winning Brunel Quays development. Situated on the first and second floor, this immaculately presented, modern, three bedroom, duplex apartment has much to offer. Overlooking the beautiful River Fowey, within walking distance of the ancient stannary town of Lostwithiel and the mainline railway station makes this the ideal location.

Stairs rise from the private entrance to the first floor landing with doors leading to the Kitchen/dining room, third bedroom - which is currently used as a utility room, separate WC, storage cupboard and sitting room. From the landing there is access via a drop down ladder, to an attic space, useful for storage.

The well equipped kitchen has an integral oven with gas hob and dishwasher. A breakfast bar separates the kitchen from the dining area which has large windows letting in plenty of light and looks over towards the railway.

The spacious sitting room has double doors leading out on to the balcony where you can enjoy views of the Fowey River, the iconic Tudor Bridge and over to the village of Lostwithiel. A fireplace houses a gas coal effect fire set in a stone hearth.

The second floor boasts two extremely spacious bedrooms, which would comfortably accommodate super-king size beds. They are flooded with sunlight via multiple elongated velux windows. The principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room with shower cubicle, WC and wash basin. Also on this level is a family bathroom and a further useful storage cupboard.

The apartment has a designated covered parking space a short walk from the property.
