Location

Roche is a popular village situated 6 miles North of St Austell and within 1½ miles of the main A30 Trunk Road, giving access towards the Cathedral City of Truro approximately 20 miles away. There are local shops, amenities, a school, sporting facilities and a Doctors Surgery all within a few minutes walk from the property. There are many fine walks to be enjoyed in the rear vicinity and both the Eden Project and Lost Gardens of Heligan are only a short drive away. St Austell town centre offers a wider range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools and supermarkets. The town of Fowey is approximately 13 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks. This area will greatly benefit from a new by-pass, currently under construction this will take the majority of traffic away from the village.

Directions

From St Austell there are numerous ways to get to Roche, if you head up through Trethowel to the Stenalees roundabout, heading left towards Roche. Follow the road into the village, past Combellack Motor Spares, and heading along Trezaise Road. Head down the hill and approximately a quarter of the way down towards the village, the converted chapel "Ty Capel is located on your right hand side, immediately after this is the turning onto Prosper Road. Number two is located on the left hand side of the road with parking in front of the property, to the right of the house.
