Location

Pentewan is a small coastal village approximately three miles south of St Austell on the south coast of Cornwall, with historic former working harbour and basin. Facilities within walking distance include the sailing club and school, beach, cafe, Post Office, garage, restaurants and pub, with pleasant woodlands walks and cycle path. The village is within close proximity of Porthpean Golf Club. St Austell town centre offers a wider range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities. The picturesque port of Charlestown and the award winning Eden Project are within a short drive. The town of Fowey is approximately 7 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks. The Cathedral city of Truro is approximately 13 miles from the property.

Directions

From St Austell head down onto the Pentewan Valley, past the Cornwall Hotel and through London Apprentice. Keep going as you head towards Pentewan. Turn left at the petrol station, go over the bridge, around the bend and past the car park on your right and the village pub on your left. Carry on through the village square and past the harbour port area on your right. The property is accessed off North Road, which is the road that runs parallel to the road up the hill out of the village. Number 16 is located on the right hand side of the road with the garage on the opposite side.

A major selling point of the property is the additional area of lawn which is located to the rear of the garage. To the left hand side an iron gate opens to provide access. Access is via a paved walkway which is well stocked to either side with evergreen planting and shrubbery with wild mint located to the right hand side at the end of the pathway. Steps then lead down to provide access to a basement storage area located underneath the garage, a fantastic spot for storing logs for the multi-fuel burner. Directly behind the garage is a paved patio area. Paved steps lead down to a sunken lawn currently housing a greenhouse and wooden shed.

Accessed from the kitchen via the stable door located to the rear of the property is the enclosed courtyard. Laid to paved patio and extremely well enclosed with natural stone to the left, a high retaining wall to the rear. To the rear of the property is an outdoor tap. Looking to the rear from the property to the left hand side is a former WC complete with WC in situ. To the opposite side double doors open to provide access to a useful storage recess with a single door to the left hand side opening to provide access to further storage. The rear patio offers a blank canvas, a fantastic private relaxation area.
