Location

The village of Polgoooth lies approximately 2 miles West of St Austell and only 12 miles from the Cathedral city of Truro. There is a local village shop/Post Office, hairdressers and a public house all within a few minutes walk. St Austell town centre offers a wider range of shopping, educational and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre together with primary and secondary schools and supermarkets. The picturesque port of Charlestown and the award winning Eden Project are within a short drive. The town of Fowey is approximately 10 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks.

Directions

From St Austell head out onto the A390 towards the villages of Polgoooth and Sticker, take the left hand slipway to Treloowth through the hamlet taking the next left signposted Polgoooth. Head down Treloowth Road past the turning to Chapel Green on your left and the open fields on your right. Approximately 150 yards past the Polgoooth Village sign turn right into Woodgrove Park. The road will bear around to the left and the property will be set back on the right hand side. A board will be erected for convenience.
