Location

Foxhole is a village situated between St Austell and Newquay with a primary school and a range of village amenities including a local shop. St Austell town centre is situated approximately 5 miles away and offers a wider range of shopping, beaches, The Eden Project, educational and recreational facilities. There is a mainline railway station and leisure centre, together with primary and secondary schools and supermarkets. The town of Fowey is approximately 13 miles away and is well known for its restaurants and coastal walks. The cathedral city of Truro is approximately 20 miles from the property.

Directions

From St Austell head out towards St Stephen, through the village of Trewoon, along through High Street and take the right hand turning signposted Foxhole and Nanpean. Continue along this road and up through the village. Approximately three quarters of the way through, pass the primary school on the left hand side of the road and the right turning into Fortescue Close. Take the next right before the entrance into Meadow Rise and follow the private road to the end of the cul-de-sac and the property will be located at the end of the lane.
