DESCRIPTION

In recent history the property was known as 'The Stockwell Arms', and has undergone a complete refurbishment to create a stunning home at the hands of the current owner. The property exudes character and charm with many original features including exposed beams and a rare barrel back fireplace. Upon entering the original front door you are greeted by a double height reception space with vaulted, beamed ceiling and feature wall exposing some of the original wattle and daub, there is also a bar with stone top, log burner and access to the cellar. Opening to snug with brick fireplace housing a second log burner and dual aspect windows. The dining room completes the ground floor of the older part of the property with the barrel back fireplace. The newer part showcases a huge open plan kitchen/dining/living space with a modern feel and includes; vaulted ceiling with feature lighting, bifolding doors, media wall and a second bar area. The bespoke, oak kitchen was crafted by The Handmade Kitchen Co and is finished with Quartz worktops, NEFF appliances and Fisher & Paykel fridge freezer. The island features a Kaelo countertop wine cooler and pop up plug socket. A cloakroom, office and utility room finished to match the kitchen completes the ground floor.

There are two staircases to the first floor, one leads to the guest suite complete with en-suite shower room and the second leads to the master suite. The master suite with it's beautiful vaulted ceiling exposing original king post trusses leads to a galleried dressing room finished with built-in storage also made by The Handmade Kitchen Co. and a stunning en-suite with his & hers walk-in shower.

Loaded with technology, the property features smart home heating, lighting control and motorised privacy and blackout blinds throughout.

Externally there is off-road parking for two vehicles which is rare for the location, hidden behind an electric, wooden gate with intercom entry system and CCTV. The tiered rear garden offers a private sanctuary with plenty of room for entertaining and designed for minimal maintenance. It includes an outdoor kitchen area, raised patio and artificial turf. To the side of the property is a covered log store and cupboard housing gas boiler.
