LOCATION

The property is set back from the road in the desirable village of Weeley offering the best of countryside living combined with accessibility. Weeley train station is just a short walk away offering direct links to London Liverpool Street and less than 1.5 miles from the A133 offering easy access to Colchester, the A12 and beyond. Across the street there is access to Weeleyhall Woods, offering countryside walks in a designated Site of Special Scientific Interest.

EXTERNAL

The property sits on a plot of approximately a third of an acre with a huge frontage of around 100' offering parking for several vehicles with a manicured lawn and granite chipped driveway leading to the detached Oak framed, double cart lodge. The front elevation of the bungalow features many show-stopping details with herringbone brickwork detail, feature lighting, full length aluminium windows and an impressive roof line with meticulous detail. The West facing rear garden offers a sizeable patio and large lawn backing onto paddocks with far reaching countryside views and measures approximately 90' in length.

INTERNAL

Truly unique, the property offers an abundance of space, filled with natural light and a layout that flows. There are four bedrooms in total with a luxury en-suite to the master bedroom and a four piece family bathroom. The piece de resistance has to be the huge open plan living space being 44' long and boasting a vaulted ceiling with electronically controlled velux windows, bi-folding doors with feature glass gable and full height glazing to front. The kitchen area includes an island with waterfall Quartz worktops and integrated appliances, there is also a separate utility room. The bungalow offers luxury Herringbone LVT flooring through the entrance hall and living space and Oak veneer doors with chrome inlays, this property is a stunning example, rarely seen locally.
