Rame Peninsula

Cornwall's famous coastline is the real draw for many who travel to the South West year-on-year to experience the wonderful sandy beaches, clamber among the natural landscapes and soak up those scenic views. Millbrook on Cornwall's southern coast combines all the best bits of the Duchy into one: an excellent coastline, parkland and wildlife lake; beautiful countryside, nearby City of Plymouth connected via the Cremyll foot passenger Ferry, local historical houses such as the Mount Edgcombe Country Park and wonderful walking and cycling. In a Area of Great Landscape Value the village of Millbrook is in close proximity to nearby beaches and is perched on the edge of a fantastic lake, home to a variety of waterfowl & ideal for a gentle stroll around. The Millbrook coast on the Rame Peninsula has a wealth of sandy beaches for visitors to explore. Head to the coast to take in breath taking views and sink your feet in the sandy shore. In Millbrook village, you can find amenities such as a fish & chip shop, public houses, a café, & convenience stores, doctors surgery, primary Schools & a Pre School. Millbrook even boasts its own Football Club with members social club. Cobbled together on the banks of the River Tamar is the town of Torpoint. It's perched opposite Plymouth, with views across the water to this Devonian city, and you can get the Torpoint Ferry across to Plymouth for a day out. Once you make it across to Plymouth there is much to keep you entertained with family-friendly attractions, the Hoe, shops, pubs and bars, and green open spaces to visit. Head to the National Marine Aquarium, Plymouth Pavilions, Drake Circus, Saltram House and Park, Smeatons Tower, or even take a trip to Dartmoor Zoo.
