Cross Keys Estates are exceptionally pleased to present for sale this extended fantastic family abode deep in the heart of the Stoke Conservation area. Having been in the same family for many decades, this property is awaiting the next chapter with a new family. The much larger than expected accommodation comprises light entrance hallway with three reception rooms off it, a ground floor toilet and a door leading through to the large fitted kitchen/breakfast room. Attached to the rear of the kitchen is a very generous sized garage with double opening door and large enough to have a workshop area. On the first floor there are five ample sized bedrooms, the family bathroom and a shower room. If more bedrooms are required then one of the receptions could easily be used. The house has gardens wrapped around from the rear to the front with plenty of room for off road parking or motorhome/boat/caravan storage. From the first floor rear vista there are far reaching views out to Plymouth Sound. This property is fully double glazed and has gas central heating throughout. Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Stoke

Stoke is a sought-after residential district, much of which is a conservation area due to the high density of Regency and Victorian homes in the area. Located approx. 1 mile from Plymouth centre offering easy access to Plymouth ferry port and within 3 miles of the A38. Primary schools in the area include Stoke Damerel Primary School and Stuart Road Primary School, whilst secondary schooling within the area includes Devonport High School for Boys and Stoke Damerel Community College. Plymouth College of Further Education is located on the southern fringes of the area. Plymouth Albion Rugby Football Club is located within a mile to the south west of Stoke with Plymouth Argyle Football Club located within a mile to the north east. There are a number of large recreational areas including the Block House Park, Victoria Park at Mill Bridge and Devonport Park within the area as well as the Ecological Park located south of Milehouse Road.
