Plymouth

Plymouth is a city on the south coast of Devon, about 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also adjacent to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North is the Dartmoor National Park extending to over 300 square miles and which provides excellent recreational facilities. The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

St Judes

St Judes is a prime location found just a stones throw away from Plymouth City Centre which benefits from direct access into the City Centre either by car, bus or walking just a short distance. Local amenities can be found within St Judes itself including a co-operative store, doctors surgery and dentists etc, with further amenities being accessible in the City Centre itself, particularly in Drake Circus Shopping Mall. Regular bus services run along Beaumont Road itself giving access to many areas across Plymouth. Salisbury Road Primary School is located nearby along with Lipson Co-operative Academy.
