Derriford

Located within the heart of the highly desirable area of Derriford, the property affords a peaceful location but is still within just a short distance of the many local amenities found in and around the Derriford area; including Derriford and the Nuffield Hospitals, Nuffield gym and health club, Marjon University and sports complex, schools, various superstores and access to the A38 Devon Expressway. Just around the corner from this property are a number of small local shops on Upland Drive providing the most immediate facilities. Park and ride is just a short distance away along with the beautiful Dartmoor National Park. This property offers an ideal family home particularly for any medical professional working in the nearby hospitals, and offers easy access into Plymouth City Centre and other areas further afield.

Plymouth

Plymouth is a city on the south coast of Devon, about 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also adjacent to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North is the Dartmoor National Park extending to over 300 square miles and which provides excellent recreational facilities. The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall. Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.
