Cross Keys Estates are pleased to present to the market this huge development potential of a house. Located close to the centre of Stoke Village and beside a cul-de-sac which offers good residents parking, this property is in need of refurbishment from top to bottom and in return is offering a great return potential. The accommodation is huge and comprises on the ground floor an entrance vestibule, reception hallway, sitting room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, utility and a handy toilet. On the first floor there are five rooms that would make excellent bedrooms with a bathroom and separate toilet. The property has a large decorative front garden and a well proportioned wall enclosed, south facing rear garden. This house could easily become up to three good sized apartment or a fabulous family home so would suit multiple potential buyers. Available with no onward chain and realistically priced as many neighbouring properties have sold closer to £400,000, this property will not be around for long therefore an early internal viewing is highly recommended.

- Fantastic Refurbishment Potential
- Would Make A Five Bedroom Home
- Sitting Room, Dining Room, Utility
- Enclosed South Facing Rear Garden
- Available With No Onward Chain
- Family Home Or Split Into Apartments
- Entrance Vestibule, Reception Hallway
- Kitchen, Breakfast Room, Cloakroom
- Close To Centre Of Stoke Village

Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north. Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project. Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well-known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year. In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating. Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airports located in Exeter (49 miles away) and Plymouth airport (5 miles from the city centre). This house Occupying an ideal central location between Central Park, Mutley Plain, City Centre and University, less than half a mile distant.

Stoke

Stoke is a sought-after residential district, much of which is a conservation area due to the high density of Regency and Victorian homes in the area. Located approx. 1 mile from Plymouth centre offering easy access to Plymouth ferry port and within 3 miles of the A38. Primary schools in the area include Stoke Damerel Primary School and Stuart Road Primary School, whilst secondary schooling within the area includes Devonport High School for Boys and Stoke Damerel Community College. Plymouth College of Further Education is located on the southern fringes of the area. Plymouth Albion Rugby Football Club is located within a mile to the south west of Stoke with Plymouth Argyle Football Club located within a mile to the north east. There are a number of large recreational areas including the Block House Park, Victoria Park at Mill Bridge and Devonport Park within the area as well as the Ecological Park located south of Milehouse Road.
