More Property Information

The property benefits from double glazing and gas central heating, providing warmth and comfort throughout the year. Outside, the enclosed rear courtyard-style garden presents a private retreat for outdoor enjoyment, while residents can take advantage of on-street parking with a permit. Although the property is in need of some cosmetic updating, it is available with no onward chain, making it an attractive prospect for those looking to personalise their new home. Its prime location in a residential "Home Zone" places it within easy reach of HM Naval Base, Devonport Dockyard, and Morice Town Primary School, making it an ideal choice for families and professionals alike. This Georgian townhouse is a rare find, offering both character and potential in a sought-after area. Don't miss the chance to make it your own.

Cross Keys Estates

As one of Plymouth's leading QUALIFIED estate agents for over two decades, we are proud to have been offering our multi award winning customer service since day one. If you are currently on the market or you are thinking of putting your property on the market, why not give us a call, you will not be disappointed. 98% of our clients recommend us to their friends and family and our results, when it comes to sales, are unrivalled.

Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Morice Town

The property is conveniently situated within the area known as Morice Town, an area which can easily be missed as it is nestled away between the areas of Stoke and Keyham. The area is a fantastic place to live for those working within Plymouth Dockyard being just a few minutes walk away and local amenities are available in abundance along Albert Road or in nearby Stoke Village. Regular bus routes operate along Keyham Road and Albert Road giving access into Plymouth City Centre and numerous other locations across the city. Parking is also readily available on road and residents bays are provided on a first come, first serve basis.
