Plymouth

Plymouth, Britain's Ocean City, is one of Europe's most vibrant waterfront cities. Located in one of the most beautiful locations imaginable, Plymouth is sandwiched between the incredible South West coastline and the wild beauty of Dartmoor National Park. Plymouth is 37 miles south-west of Exeter and 190 miles west-south-west of London, between the mouths of the rivers Plym to the east and Tamar to the west where they join Plymouth Sound to form the boundary with Cornwall, it is also home to one of the most natural harbours in the world. To the North of Plymouth is Dartmoor National Park, extending to over 300 square miles, which provides excellent recreational facilities.

The city is home to more than 260,000 people, making it the 30th most populated city in the United Kingdom and the second-largest city in the South West, after Bristol and has a full range of shopping, educational and sporting facilities. There is mainline train service to London (Paddington) and to Penzance in West Cornwall.

There's everything that you would expect to find in a cool, cultural city, with great shopping, arts and entertainment. But there's also hundreds of years of history to uncover, from Sir Francis Drake and the Spanish Armada to the Mayflower sailing in 1620, to a city rebuilt following the Blitz during World War II. With easy access to Exeter and its International Airport and a mainline train station giving direct access to London and a ferry port offering sea crossings to both France and Spain.

Plymouth is governed locally by Plymouth City Council and is represented nationally by three MPs. Plymouth's economy remains strongly influenced by shipbuilding and seafaring including ferry links to Brittany and Spain, but has tended toward a university economy since the early 2000's. It has the largest operational naval base in Western Europe – HMNB Devonport.

Laira

The property benefits from a highly convenient position within the area known as Laira. This ever popular locally with first time buyers and buy to let investors thanks to its abundance of nicely proportioned yet affordable properties. This property specifically can be found just around the corner from numerous local amenities found along Torridge Way, with further amenities available in nearby Higher Compton and Mutley Plain. Numerous popular local schools are also within close proximity to the property. Regular bus routes operate along Pike Road itself providing direct access into Plymouth City Centre and other areas across the city.

More Property Information

The generous private rear garden is a standout feature, offering a tranquil outdoor space. This property is a perfect renovation project, and brimming with potential to create a truly personalised home.

This mid-terrace house on Old Laira Road is a fantastic opportunity to secure a spacious family home in a desirable location, with the added benefit of a private garden and the potential for further development. Don't miss your chance to make this property your own.
