Montpelier Crescent, Brighton, BN1 3JF

Guide Price £700,000 to £750,000 A beautifully presented Grade II Listed, Victorian flat, located in sought after Montpelier Crescent, Brighton - just moments from the hustle and bustle of Seven Dials. This characterful property boasts a delightful blend of modern contemporary styling and the classic elegance of period features, making it a truly special find.

As you step into this beautiful flat, you are greeted by a spacious entrance lobby with turning staircase to the second floor. The bright second floor accommodation comprises two generous double bedrooms, an open plan living room and kitchen, and a family bathroom.

Step outside onto the private west-facing roof terrace, a rare gem in such a central location, where you can enjoy al fresco dining or simply unwind while taking in the picturesque views over the crescent.

With timber framed double glazed sash windows, period features, brand new kitchen, and private roof terrace, this property is sure to capture the hearts of those seeking a unique and stylish living space in Brighton.

Location

The property is situated on Montpelier Crescent, one of Brighton's most attractive architectural set-pieces and dates from the early Victorian period and located within a conservation area. The popular Seven Dials location offers easy access to Brighton mainline train station and city centre which is why it is extremely desirable especially to those who commute to London. The location also offers additional transport links across the city and the Sussex area and is near numerous bars, eateries and amenities positioned at Seven Dials. The seafront and Western Road are situated a short distance to the south.

Accommodation

Approached via very well maintained communal hallway (that is shared only with one other flat) with a grand original turning staircase and beautiful period tiling, the flats entrance sits on the first floor.

Once inside, you'll be greeted by a generous entrance lobby with library style shelving/shoe nooks and space to hang coats.

As the stairs rise and turn to the second floor, the impressive double height ceiling and galleried landing allows a wonderful flow of natural light with access to all principal rooms.

Tastefully styled throughout, the current owners have created a calming space with neutral shades and cream carpeting. Retaining the stunning period ceiling roses and with double glazed, timber framed sash windows, the property is full of character.

The property boasts two generous double bedrooms that both enjoy leafy green views over the crescent and neighbouring gardens to the rear, with built in storage.

Recently reconfigured and done so very considerately, the open plan living room and kitchen is great family/social space. Laid to engineered oak flooring with ample space for a dining table and chairs, the recessed kitchen is classic and contemporary in style, comprising a range of Dove grey shaker style units with real wood work surface.

With period style tongue and groove surrounds and a Victorian style suite, the bathroom is elegant and in keeping with the age of the property. Flourished with patterned tiled effect lino and a warm peachy colour palette

Outside

Timber framed, double glazed French doors give access to a great size roof terrace, that is incredibly private nestled between the roof tops. With stunning views over the crescent and laid to artificial grass, this low maintenance space is a real gem in such a central location.
