The first viewings are on the 19th of October 2024.

Cornerstone are delighted to offer this stylish and well-presented Victorian through terrace property in this convenient location of Leeds.

This spacious home features a stunning dining kitchen with an abundance of Granite. Throughout the property, it is decorated in stylish and modern colour schemes. We are sure this will appeal to many buyers, especially those looking for a property close to Leeds City Centre, the motorway network and a local park.

The accommodation of this property comprises the ground floor, an entrance lobby, a spacious sitting room, inner hallway with a staircase rising to the first floor. Through the hallway, you enter an impressive dining kitchen that has a range of modern fitted wall and base units with granite worktops, granite splashbacks and a granite island. A door leads down into the cellar and a third door leads out into the rear courtyard garden.

The first-floor landing gives access to the principal, a second bedroom that is currently used as a walking wardrobe and a bathroom. A second staircase from the landing leads up to the second floor.

The second-floor landing gives access to two good-sized double bedrooms.

The cellar provides useful storage, it has power and houses the gas central heating boiler.

Externally the property has a flagged courtyard rear garden, a gate opens to lead out onto Back Ecclesburn Street.

The property is conveniently placed for commuters requiring access to the centre of Leeds being around 1.6 miles from Leeds Train Station. York Road/A64, one of the main arterial roads into Leeds is a short drive away, this also gives easy access to the surrounding districts and the motorway networks. York Road/A64 offers easy access to the shopping amenities available at Killingbeck and Crossgates. The A1/M1 Link Road is a short distance away. This location is convenient for St James Hospital too.

Viewing is highly recommended given the property's price, finish and location.
