SURROUNDING FACILITIES

Hogganfield Loch, which lies within the 48-hectare Hogganfield Park, is deservedly popular with walkers, cyclists and, most particularly, bird watchers. The Loch is part of the wider Seven Lochs Wetland Park and is one of Glasgow's most important sites for migratory and overwintering water birds including the Great Crested Grebe, Whooper Swan and Goldeneye Duck.

If you want a walk with a purpose, Lethamhill Golf Club lies just to the south of Hogganfield Loch, and for keen cyclists, the Seven Lochs and Canal Loop offers a variety of routes to suit every age and ability – including the 8km Seven Lochs path that winds its way through the nature reserve. And for more gentle pursuits, Glasgow Fort is also close by with its range of shops, restaurants and state-of-the-art cinema.

SITE LOCATION

Set within this exciting & limited development, these properties enjoy a prime location to the north-east of cosmopolitan Glasgow city centre, boasting easy access to great local amenities and retail opportunities, as well as leisure and sporting facilities.

The area of Hogganfield will definitely appeal to a wide range of buyers to include first time buyers, professionals and families. The surrounding area further benefits from excellent transport links in the area, with the M8 and M80 motorways both reached within a few minutes drive.

The neighbouring area of Robroyston offers easy access to train links with park and ride facility located within one mile from development. Regular bus services are also readily available.
