Upon entering the property, you are welcomed into a hallway that leads to the main living spaces. The lounge, positioned at the front of the home, is a generous size with ample natural light. Towards the rear, the open-plan kitchen/diner spans the full width of the property, featuring double doors that open onto the garden. A convenient WC is also located on the ground floor.

The first floor comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a family bathroom, complete with a bath and washbasin. Additionally, there is a smaller room currently used as an office, ideal for home working.

Externally, the property boasts a detached garage and a lengthy driveway providing plenty of off street parking. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn, featuring a paved seating area and a fenced boundary for privacy.

Situated in Havannah Park, Hazlerigg, this home offers easy access to local amenities, schools, and transport links.
