STEPHENSON BROWNE

Set on one of Madeley's most desirable residential roads, this detached property offers spacious accommodation, an attractive plot, and exciting potential for modernisation, giving buyers the opportunity to create a home tailored to their own style in a highly sought-after location.

The ground floor begins with a welcoming hallway, complete with understairs storage and a handy guest W.C. The main lounge is bright and inviting with a gas feature fireplace. A second reception room offers flexibility as a formal dining room, home office, or snug, while the kitchen provides space for everyday dining and opens to the rear garden.

Upstairs, the home features three bedrooms. The main bedroom boasts fitted wardrobes and stunning open views across the surrounding countryside, creating a serene retreat. Bedroom two is also a well-proportioned double with generous storage, while bedroom three, though a smaller box room, is highly versatile, making an ideal home office, nursery, playroom, or cosy single bedroom. A family bathroom completes the first floor.

Outside, the property continues to impress. The rear garden is of a good size, providing plenty of space for outdoor living and further landscaping, and comes complete with a garden shed. To the front, there is driveway parking and an integral garage with a remote-controlled electric shutter door.

Situated close to village amenities, reputable schools, and with excellent transport links to Crewe, Newcastle-under-Lyme, and beyond, this property combines location, space, and potential – making it a rare opportunity in a prestigious setting.
