Property Description

THE HISTORY OF I-LAND The I-Land Building is built on the site of a former industrial area. Here is a brief overview of the history for the area on which it is built:

- The area around Essex Street was originally home to various industrial buildings, warehouses, and factories, dating back to the 18th and 19th centuries. Industrial Era

- During the Industrial Revolution, the area became a hub for manufacturing and trade, with companies producing goods such as metals, machinery, and textiles.

- By the mid-20th century, the area had declined due to the decline of industry and manufacturing in the UK.

In the late 1990s and early 2000s, the area underwent significant regeneration efforts, including the development of the I-Land complex.

I-Land apartment is now part of a thriving mixed-use community, featuring modern apartments, offices, and leisure facilities.
