DESCRIPTION

Find this property within a rare to market, desirable location in the village of Cottingham.

Set within a quiet Cul-De-Sac, this unique home boasts a low maintenance front garden area with parking for several vehicles. Through the front door you enter a spacious hallway providing storage space, a sitting area, access to all locations and is very well illuminated by a large window to the front garden. The wooden flooring runs throughout the ground floor creating a sense of open flowing space and warmth.

Into the lounge you are greeted with a large entertaining room, excellent natural light provided from the four windows floods the room whilst also providing lovely views of the front and rear gardens. The wood floor creates a sense of warmth and depth whilst reflecting the natural light.

The well proportioned dining room offers space for a large dining table and storage units. Natural light and views to the front of the property are provided by a large window. The entrance opposite the kitchen is excellent for transferring freshly prepared meals.

The kitchen is very well proportioned with a large working and storage area whilst providing space for a table and chairs. A lovely view of the garden and tiled flooring complete this well designed kitchen.

The utility room is a great addition with further food preparation and laundry space. with access to the rear garden, this room also acts as a boot room for those wet days in the garden.

The bathroom is a generous size with a five piece bathroom suite, part tiled walls, tiled flooring and illuminated by a large window overlooking the rear garden.

On the first floor landing is access to the bedrooms, separate WC and storage.

In the principle bedroom you are transported into a Skandi wonderland, a rich and deep environment created by beautiful, detailed joinery. This room has to be visited to be truly appreciated. Currently completed by matching storage furniture and design conscious lighting, the natural light highlights beautiful details through the large window.

The stylish WC has some beautiful fittings, a throw back to the stylish days! There is potential to increase the size of this bathroom through the adjacent storage space.

The second bedroom is an excellent size providing ample space for a double bed, storage and bedroom furniture. A large window provides views to the side of the property. The third bedroom is a generous single, also providing space for storage and bedroom furniture with a lovely view of the rear garden.

The rear garden is a wide, private and tranquil space. South facing, the previous owner enjoyed growing grapes in the warmer months.

The garage is a fantastically large space offering a great deal of potential.
