ACCOMMODATION

Originally a stable range dating back to 1911 and now an exclusive development of just five mews homes,

A part-glazed front door open into the Entrance hall with a cupboard. Doors open into the kitchen and into the open-plan reception room with two full height sash windows, creating a bright spacious living space with a dining area, stairs to the first floor with a useful storage cupboard under.

The kitchen features a good range of fitted shaker style wall and base units with work surfaces over with an inset stainless steel sink unit and metro style tiled splash-backs. Fitted single oven with gas hob over, space for a fridge and plumbing for a washing machine.

To the first floor there are two double bedrooms. The landing has a cupboard housing the gas fired boiler.

Bedroom 1 has a front aspect and a fitted wardrobe.

Bedroom 2 has a front aspect and two deep walk-in cupboards.

The fully tiled bathroom has a walk-in shower cubicle with a glass screen, a w.c and a wash hand basin.

Outside

To the front of the property there is an area of lawn with shrub borders. In addition the property offers a single garage in a block with a parking space to one side.

LOCATION

Living in Friday Street

Friday Street is a quiet street, a stone's throw from the main shopping area of the town. This area of Henley has many artisan shops including the Willow Basket, a popular take away and The Anchor pub. At the bottom of Friday Street is the River Thames with a short walk to the Regatta course and 5 minute walk to Henley railway station.

For those who want to be close to all amenities, this home is just a 5 minute walk from the town square, which holds a bustling market every Thursday and has many cafes and restaurants.

Henley-on-Thames has a good range of local shops, pubs, restaurants, a three-screen cinema and the 200-year-old Kenton Theatre. The world-famous Henley Royal Regatta takes place in July, followed by the Henley Festival of Arts, the Rewind Festival in August and the Henley Literary Festival, which takes place every September/October. Phyllis Court country club is situated on the river and is a great place to socialise.

The commuter is well provided for with Henley Station just a short walk away, providing a regular train service to London Paddington via Twyford mainline station and Elizabeth Line.

Leisure

The River Thames offers various activities and as you would expect Henley has many local rowing clubs. There is a local paddle boarding club, canoe club, as well as a dingy sailing club at Wargrave. Marina facilities are found at Henley, Hambleden and Wargrave. Local golf clubs at Henley Golf Club and Badgemore Park Golf Club. Other local sports clubs include cricket, rugby, hockey, football and lawn tennis. There is superb walking, cycling and horse riding in the Chiltern Hills, a designated area of outstanding natural beauty or along the River Thames.

Trains and buses operate to Reading which offers excellent shopping at the Oracle Shopping Centre. Recreational facilities include the SCL Stadium, home to Reading Football Club, horse racing at Ascot, Windsor and Newbury and a number of elite Polo teams.
