ACCOMMODATION

A wooden picket fence encloses the front garden with paths to the front doors of the maisonettes. 45B is accessed from the left side of the building via a private path. A wooden panel door opens into a small entrance hall with space for shoes and coats. Carpeted stairs lead up to the landing, with a bannister for support.

The kitchen/dining room is newly refurbished in a contemporary style, with a breakfast bar that comfortably seats 6 people. There are eye and base level units in an attractive navy blue shaker-style, a large gas hob inset into the wooden work surface, with an integrated double oven underneath. There is space for a washer/dryer and space for an American-style fridge-freezer. The stainless steel 1.5 sink with drainer board is located below a triple window which overlooks the rear garden. There are fitted plantation shutters and a vertical radiator on the opposite wall. In the corner of the room is a pantry, which also houses the gas boiler. The kitchen has a grey wood-effect flooring, and a food hatch through to the living room.

The sitting room has a triple window to the front. It has an open fire with a tiled stone hearth and mantelpiece, and the food hatch from the kitchen.

Bedroom 1 overlooks the front aspect. It is a large carpeted double, has a freestanding wardrobe, a storage cupboard and a central light point.

The tiled bathroom has a panel-enclosed shower bath with a fixed and hand shower wand. There is an obscure-glass window onto the garden, a heated towel rail and the same flooring as the kitchen. The separate lavatory also has an obscured window to the rear, a low-level w.c. and wood-effect flooring.

Bedroom 2 is a smaller carpeted double, with a built-in cupboard, a west-facing window to the rear, and space for a large chest of drawers.

The private rear garden is accessed by turning right out of the front door and then going through a wooden gate. This is west-facing and has a pleasant patio area. Most of the garden is laid to lawn with some mature shrubs and trees in the adjoining gardens. A brick storage shed can be accessed next to the garden path.

LOCATION

Living in Gainsborough Crescent

45b Gainsborough Crescent is situated in a quiet residential cul-de-sac approximately 0.5 miles from the town centre and railway station, which is just a 15 minute walk away. It is one quarter of a 4 maisonette building, which is owned and managed by SOHA. A nominal annual service fee ensures the maintenance of the building.

Gainsborough Crescent was named after the Rev. Humphrey Gainsborough, an inventor and non-conformist minister who was the brother of the famous painter Thomas Gainsborough. The property is conveniently located just over half a mile from the town centre and has Makins Recreation Ground and skatepark on its doorstep. It is a short walk to Sacred Heart RC Primary School and Gillotts Secondary.

Henley has a wide selection of shops, including a Waitrose supermarket; there are boutiques, a cinema, an historic theatre, excellent pubs and restaurants, a bustling market every Thursday and good schools for all ages.

The commuter is well provided for with the M4/M40 giving road access to London, Heathrow, West Country and Midlands. Henley Station has direct links with London Paddington via Twyford on the Elizabeth Line and the Great Western mainline.
