LOCATION

This Grade II Listed, character guest house and bistro enjoys a central position within the small hamlet of Litte Petherick, in an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, just two miles from the picturesque harbour town of Padstow on the North Cornwall coast.

DESCRIPTION

We understand that the property dates back to the mid-1600s and was originally constructed as a grist mill, used for grinding corn up until the early 1900s. The current proprietors have carried out a sympathetic refurbishment campaign during their period of ownership where the property now briefly comprises a welcoming reception lounge with feature fireplace and reception desk; ladies and gents cloakrooms; a beautifully appointed 24-cover bistro with many character features; guests' lounge; equipped commercial kitchen; owners' lounge/study; seven extremely well appointed en-suite guest bedrooms (four taking in views over the landscaped terrace garden), and a private owners' double bedroom with en-suite bathroom. Five of the extremely well appointed guest bedrooms are located on the first floor, with a further two located on the second floor.

Externally, to the rear lies a delightful, landscaped terrace garden (a potential tea garden), which borders the creek. The well stocked garden includes various seating areas for guests to enjoy, and immediately to the rear of the property is an electric powered water wheel adjacent to a further terrace with an outside built-in pizza oven.

For further information, interested parties are welcome to view our clients' website (www.theoldmillhouse.com).

THE BUSINESS

This successful, family run business trades approximately 10 months of the year, offering the seven guest bedrooms on a bed and breakfast basis alongside the very popular bistro which has collected numerous accolades over the years. Combined, the average sales over the last two years was in the region of £250,000. There is certainly potential to enhance the lucrative trade further by perhaps opening for lunches and a tea garden from the idyllic creekside location. We are sure discerning purchasers will appreciate the quality of the accommodation and thriving business in the extremely generous, tranquil creekside location close to Padstow.
